

Spearman Social Work Graduate Veteran Scholarship: This award was created by 1975 MSW Alumnus and veteran Guy Spearman and his wife to support a College of Social Work post-graduate veteran students, pursuing research on military service members, veterans, their families and communities.

- Award: The award will be given to a post-graduate student (current MSW or Ph.D. at FSU College of Social Work) who was in the military, currently serving in the military or who will be serving in the military after graduation. This scholarship awards up to $3000 for research.
- Eligibility: Must be enrolled at FSU College of Social Work graduate programs and pursuing research on military service members, veterans, their families and communities.
- Application: Must apply through FSU College of Social Work in the spring semester for the award following fall: (<http://csw.fsu.edu/academics/financial-assistance>).
- Selection: Meets requirements, application submission and scholarship committee at FSU College of Social Work.